

Information from ASIC

Dear Customer,

We are required by law and by ASIC to provide you the following information regarding Insurance Cover on your items while in our Storage Facility.

You can say "NO" to being sold this insurance. It is not compulsory.

If you wish to accept Insurance Cover offered by QBE through Australian Mobile Storage Pty Ltd please tick the first box under "Insurance" on Page 1 of your Storage Agreement when you complete, sign and return it.

If we do not receive your confirmation on the signed Storage Agreement you email to us, you will not have insurance cover for your goods in storage unless you request cover separately by email.

If you have not accepted or declined our Insurance offer by the start date, ASIC requires Australian Mobile Storage salespeople to wait 4 days after your start date before offering you Insurance as an 'extra' to your storage requirement.

You can opt out by saying "NO" to being contacted about customer storage insurance offered by Australian Mobile Storage Pty Ltd by emailing sales@australianmobilestorage.com.au or by ticking one of the relevant boxes under "Insurance" on Page 1 of your Storage Agreement.

If you are unsure, consider your situation and ask yourself: -

1. Do I need and understand this insurance?

Consider what the policy covers and what it excludes. You may already have other insurance or arrangements that will cover any potential loss or damage.

2. Could I get a better deal somewhere else?

Consider if another insurance product or company can better meet your needs. You may be able to shop around for a better deal.
